CONNECTICUT NATIONAL GUARD FAMILY PROGRAM HOSTS “BREAKFAST WITH THE EASTER BUNNY”

HARTFORD, Conn. – Maj. Gen. Thaddeus J. Martin, Adjutant General and Commander of the Connecticut National Guard, announces the 18th annual “Breakfast with the Easter Bunny,” will be held on Saturday, April 4, 2015, at 10 a.m. at the Windsor Locks Readiness Center.

The event will provide Connecticut National Guard members and their families the opportunity to meet the Easter Bunny and participate in other festivities that include an egg hunt and a breakfast.

Breakfast with the Easter Bunny focuses on the children of Guard members who have been deployed and who are currently deployed in support operations around the world. Currently, the Connecticut National Guard has more than 100 members deployed throughout the world.

“We have always made every possible effort to take care of the family members of those deployed around the world,” said Martin. “This event is a positive way to bring the families of our Soldiers and Airmen closer together and let the children have some fun.”

Since September 11, 2001, the Connecticut National Guard has made the Family Support Program a top priority. The Connecticut National Guard has mobilized and deployed approximately 6,000 Soldiers and Airmen in support of the Global War on Terror.

This event is open to the media beginning at 9 a.m.
